

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR SWIMMERS

Sporting integrity is based on the acceptance of rules, fairness, equality, respect for others, moral conduct and a sense of what is right. Scottish sport's goal is to create a sporting environment where violence, breaking the rules, the abuse of drugs, the lack of fair play and other unethical behaviour are automatically rejected as being irrelevant to the true purpose of sport.

I agree to:

- Abide by the principal statement on Ethics above.
- Practice within the spirit of the sport.
- Behave with respect to others including coaches, officials, other swimmers and spectators.
- Treat all others how I would like to be treated - with integrity.
- Refrain from inappropriate conduct towards others whether physical, verbal or emotional.
- Set a good example at all times in aspects of dress, punctuality, language, behaviour and respect of equipment and others.
